

Abstract:

Title: Skying course after implementation of school educating programs on the basic schools situated in sector called Central of Bohemia

Aim: The aim of this bachelor task is finding out of skying course after implementation of school educating programs on the basic schools situated at Central of Bohemia

Method: All necessary facts were reached by public inquiry. The public inquiry contained questions closed, by spectrum and consequently with option for their own answers. This public inquiry was sent among of physical training teachers located in Central of Bohemia.

Results: As results show the skiing courses have been practically implemented at all schools and then educating programs and have been realized regularly. By using of traditional way of organisation school is main organizer of skiing events. Moreover is highly kept focus for personal security of skiing courses, than for safety and medical control. Unfortunately security of control of students out of skiing course time period remaining the weakest point.

Key words: skying, skying course, physical training, framing and school education program